

Mountainous Country West of the Dingle Burn

Almost the entire valley wall is Class 8 land which should be removed from the lease. Cattle are grazed in the valley floor. These are having a detrimental impact on forest margins and fisheries values. Restrictions on grazing are required. The Dingle is known as an outstanding high country Rainbow trout fishery. It is also a popular tramping route to Lake Hawea.